To Whom It May Concern:

Seyi was an excellent employee during his internship at BIMobject Italy.

He took his work very seriously, proving to be able to run project development independently and with full ownership. His technical skills really helped us solving some specific customer problems. The combination of architectural design skills and BIM software knowledge give Seyi the power to really be hands on and making a difference in a team.

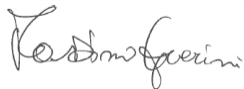

We give him some new technology to learn ( BIMscript ) and he took the challenge and became a master of it.

Always able to meet deadlines, he is an hard worked but keeping up the quality of work delivered.

I would highly recommend him for this position.

Regards,

Massimo Guerini – Managing Director

To Whom it may concern,

I am the Technical Director of Skeinholding S.r.l. and I have had the pleasure of working with Seyi over his 12 month contract with us. Having been in the feild over 10 years now, I can truly say that Seyi's talents as a BIM specialist stand out. We greatly valued his ability to jump right in the softwares needed to complete his projects in expected timing. Seyi has been able to handle projects, relatively independently, requiring minimum supervision, and providing consolidated report on discrepancies.

We greatly appreciated other traits that Seyi did on his own, like self-checking his work and seeking out new solutions for the development of our BIM components

For these reasons and more, I would recommend Seyi for future opportunites as a BIM Expert.

Sincerely,

Roberto Dallavilla,
Technical Director

To Whom it may concern,

Seyi Oladimeji has been employed as an intern architect from June to November 2019.

He was involved in different projects: from exhibition design for Pinacoteca Agnelli in Turin and Louis Vuitton Foundation in Paris to interior refurbishments in Milan.

He is conscientious, hard working and committed to the project team.

He has an extensive knowledge of Autocad software, 3D modelling and Adobe Suite softwares.

He has amicable and pleasant manners.

I understand his desire to furthering his experience and I have no hesitation in recommending him.

Sincerely,

arch. Marco Palmieri
